

HAI and FAA Safety Team
Rotorcraft Safety
Tuesday, October 4, 2011

AGENDA:

0900—0930 Registration

0930—0945 Jim Lamb—Welcome and Introduction

0945—1015 Stan Rose—Trends in Helicopter Safety

1015—1045 Jim Lamb—ENG Communications

BREAK—Sponsored by HAI

1100—1130 Howard Sapp-Local Air Traffic Safety/Concerns

1130—1200 Fatigue Management and Integration with SMS

LUNCH—Sponsored by HAI

1300—1430 Panel—Operational challenges and lessons learned from recent response to the Joplin, MO tornado; and an incident review of the multiple aircraft operational environment (including air medical, ENG, and law enforcement) followed by a discussion on future planning.

1430—1500 PHI Air Medical—Destination Zero—No Pressure Initiative

Continued Page 2

HAI and FAA Safety Team
Rotorcraft CFI Program
Thursday, June 9, 2011

AGENDA:

BREAK

1515—1545 Stan Rose—Legislation update, MET tower briefing, and discussion about State Legislation

1545—1615 Dick Whipple—Closing remarks, open forum for questions and suggestions

1730—1900 Air Medical Reception

1900—2100 Air Medical break-out presentations, Aviation Safety Presentation / Metro Aviation—Benefits of Flight Data Monitoring

Speakers: Stan Rose, HAI Director of Safety
Jim Lamb, FAAS Team Helicopter Committee
Dick Whipple, LifeFlight Eagle VP of Operations
Howard Sapp, Mgr. of FAA NextGen Procedures

Thank you for attending.

